

Certified Digital Consultant

Procedure of the certification process:

- Registration for certification and payment of the certification fee Submission of documents for examination by experts
- Admission to the hearing after fulfillment of the formal admission requirements and approval by experts
- Successful completion of the technical discussion (commissioned one-on-one interview)
- Certificate / Title "Certified Digital Consultant"

Costs

EUR 480 - plus 120 EUR membership fee at Digital Fund (FREE 1-year membership at BCC)

Validity of the certificate:

3 years, then recertification *

Procedure of the certification process:

Concrete advantages for the Certified Digital Consultant:

With the certificate Certified Digital Consultant and your previous professional experience in the field of digitization, you have a marketable quality seal, build trust with customers and are demonstrably able to accompany the companies and organizations you care professionally and successfully in their digitization processes.

- Clear documentation of "state-of-the-art" of your competencies in the relevant subject areas
- Comprehensible quality standard according to objective criteria & presentable quality seal
- Benefits of order acquisition
- Possibility of the media presentation of the qualification and stronger market positioning
- Know-how exchange with the community keeps the topic "fit" and opens up networking advantages

After fulfilling the following requirements, the certificate Certified Digital Consultant can be awarded:

- At least three years of proven activity in the field of digitization (as an IT service provider or management consultant in a self-employed or non-self-employed position)
- Fulfillment of the formal approval criteria according to the certification guidelines (see certification manual)
- Successful completion of the technical discussion

Target group

The certification is aimed at IT service providers and management consultants

- with relevant experience, knowledge and skills in the field of digitization,
- who are demonstrably active in the field of digitization and
- want to document their specialized knowledge in the field of digitization by a strong quality seal

The certified persons

- have a comprehensive knowledge of digital trends as well as opportunities and risks of digitization
- are able to recognize digital potentials among customers
- can determine the maturity of the digitization of a business
- can develop and accompany digitization strategies
- see the opportunities and can accompany the technical implementation of product, service and business model development
- have their "personal tool kit" & soft skills
- are able to make innovations in all areas of the value chain available to their clients